STAR Financial Bank’s Maureen Glunt Named to IBJ’s Forty Under 40

Fort Wayne, Ind. (April 15, 2026) – STAR Financial Bank is proud to announce that Maureen “Mo” Glunt, Senior Treasury Management Officer, has been named one of the Indianapolis Business Journal’s (IBJ) Forty Under 40 honorees, recognizing outstanding young professionals making a significant impact in Central Indiana.

“Mo exemplifies the kind of driven, relationship-focused leadership that strengthens both our organization and the communities we serve,” said Kevin Wright, President of STAR Financial Bank. “Her ability to lead with purpose, grow high-performing teams, and deliver meaningful results for our clients has made a lasting impact on STAR’s continued success.”

Glunt has built an accomplished career in financial services, joining STAR Financial Bank in 2016. In her current role as Senior Treasury Management Officer, she leads the treasury sales team with a strong focus on deposit growth and the expansion of cash management and payment solutions for commercial, municipal, and nonprofit clients. Under her leadership, the department has achieved 23% year-over-year growth, reflecting both her strategic vision and commitment to excellence.

Known for her collaborative leadership style, Glunt works seamlessly across teams to ensure exceptional customer experiences and efficient service delivery. Her ability to build strong, trust-based relationships with clients and colleagues has been instrumental in strengthening STAR’s commercial banking presence and reputation.

Beyond her professional achievements, Glunt is deeply committed to community engagement and making a meaningful impact. She actively supports youth literacy initiatives through her work with the Hussey-Mayfield Memorial Public Library and The Library Foundation, including her involvement in the STAR Bank Everbright Wall project at the Whitestown Branch. She also leads STAR's Employee Resource Group, WISE (Women in Search of Excellence), where she fosters a culture of mentorship, professional development, and empowerment for women across the organization.

Glunt's combination of professional success, leadership, and community involvement reflects her dedication to driving both organizational growth and positive community impact.

The IBJ Forty Under 40 Class of 2026 recognizes 40 rising leaders who have demonstrated significant career achievement, leadership, and civic engagement. Honorees are selected by an independent panel of judges from nominations submitted by peers and community members.
