

Please see below for a communication from NYDIG:

Dear valued customer,

It has been exciting working with STAR Financial Bank on the limited launch of the bitcoin service. The initial limited release was successful, and we greatly appreciate your participation. However, NYDIG and STAR Financial Bank have mutually decided to discontinue offering these services through STAR Financial Bank at this time and your NYDIG bitcoin account is being closed as a result.

We confirmed that you do not have a bitcoin balance, so we will be closing your account and no further action is required on your part. You will not be able to initiate any bitcoin purchases while your account is being closed.

Thank you for being a customer of NYDIG and we apologize for any inconvenience this decision may have caused. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact STAR Financial Bank at (260) 479-2648.

Thank you,

The NYDIG Team
